NHL Coaching Debut:

Derek Laxdal was named the fourth head coach in Texas Stars franchise history on July 3, 2014 to begin his American Hockey League head coaching career. In his first two seasons behind the bench for Texas, Laxdal guided the club to an 80-47-21-4 record and a pair of playoff appearances. Laxdal has made 13 consecutive trips to the postseason, and recorded 11 40-win seasons, in his 14-year head coaching career.

Laxdal joined the Texas Stars after concluding a four-year stretch (2010-2014) as head coach of the Western Hockey League's Edmonton Oil Kings, highlighted by winning the 2014 Memorial Cup as Canadian Hockey League champions. During his final campaign in Edmonton, Laxdal guided his team to a 50-19-3 record and the Ed Chynoweth Cup as playoff champions of the WHL – the second of his career after claiming the honor in 2012. In his four seasons coaching the Oil Kings, Laxdal led the club to three 50-win seasons and finished with an overall record of 182-82-23.

In joining the Texas Stars, Laxdal returned for a second stint with the NHL's Dallas Stars organization. He spent five seasons (2005-2010) as the head coach of Dallas' ECHL affiliate, the Idaho Steelheads, and won the 2007 Kelly Cup. Laxdal guided the Steelheads to a 219-108-35 record during his tenure as head coach, winning 40 or more games and qualifying for the postseason in each of his five years behind the bench. The Steelheads made a return trip to the Kelly Cup Finals in 2010, falling to the Cincinnati Cyclones in five games.

His coaching career began in 2002 as a midseason replacement for the Central Hockey League's Wichita Thunder. In the following two seasons, Laxdal guided the Thunder to a semifinal appearance each year and a combined regular season record of 75-41-8 before shifting his career to Idaho.

Laxdal was an eighth-round draft pick (151st overall) of the Toronto Maple Leafs in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft. He spent parts of six NHL seasons with the Maple Leafs and New York Islanders, tallying 19 points (12 goals, seven assists) in 67 career games. His professional playing career spanned 15 years, and Laxdal appeared in 356 contests at the AHL level – compiling 230 points (108 goals, 122 assists). He won the 1990 Calder Cup as a member of the AHL's Springfield Indians, and also claimed the 1997 B&H Cup with the Nottingham Panthers of the British Ice Hockey Superleague (BISL).

NHL Coaching Debut:

Karl Taylor was named the assistant coach of the Texas Stars in July 2014 after completing a successful run with the Portland Winterhawks of the Western Hockey League. In two seasons with the Texas Stars, he helped guide the team to an 80-47-21-4 record and a pair of playoff appearances.

In his only season as an assistant with the Winterhawks, Taylor helped guide the team to a 54-13-5 record, finishing second overall in the WHL. Portland advanced to the 2014 WHL Finals, where they lost in seven games to the Edmonton Oil Kings. Joining the Stars organization marked a return to the American Hockey League for Taylor, who served as an assistant coach for the Chicago Wolves in 2011-12. During that season, the Wolves claimed the Midwest Division title with a 42-27-4-3 record.

Before moving to the AHL, Taylor spent six seasons as a head coach in the ECHL overseeing the Reading Royals (2005-2008) and Ontario Reign (2008-2011) – posting an all-time record of 208-181-44 with the two clubs.

Taylor began his coaching career as an assistant coach for his alma mater, the University of New Brunswick, of Canadian Interuniversity Sport (CIS) for two seasons (1996-1998), helping the Varsity Reds win a silver medal in 1997 and the 1998 University Cup Championship -- their first in school history. He then served as the head coach of Red Deer College of the Canadian Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) for three years (2000-2003), followed by two seasons as head coach of the University of Waterloo (2003-2005) of CIS. During his second year at Waterloo, Taylor was named the 2004-05 OUA West Coach of the Year.

As a skater, Taylor played three seasons (1988-1991) in the Ontario Hockey League with the Windsor Spitfires, London Knights and North Bay Centennials. In 137 career OHL games he had 35 points (16 goals, 19 assists) and 98 penalty minutes. Taylor then played over four seasons of Canadian Interuniversity Athletics Union (CIAU) hockey for the University of New Brunswick, posting 64 points (12 goals, 52 assists) and 113 penalty minutes in 116 CIAU games.
